THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

To-morrow occurs the great, glorious, celebrated and only Fourth of July—the one hundred and third anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of American Independence. It was old John Adams, we believe, who recommended that the American people forever foster the memory of that grand event, by the suspension of business, the firing of guns, the burning of Chinese crackers, the reading of the famous Declaration, the delivery of orations, and the other "pomp and circumstance" which attend modern Fourth of July celebrations. Probably the first of the Adamses did not contemplate the possibility of any such inflammable towns as exist in the mountain regions, or he might have left the fire-crackers out. Neither had the great Portland fire occurred at that time. With, however, the exception noted, the citizens of Bodie will give vent to their burning patriotism to-morrow. The stores will all close at an early hour. A procession, composed of the civic societies, the veterans of the Mexican and of the late war, the Pacific Coast Pioneers, the fire companies and other organizations calculated to give it dignity and length, will parade our principal streets. The Declaration will be read, an oration will be delivered, a picnic will be given at Mormon Ranch, a pleasant ride out of town, the ladies of the Bodie Sunday school will give an entertainment at the corner of Main and Green streets, theaters and balls will afford amusement in the evening, and everything will go off as "merry as a marriage bell." In order to afford our business manager, editor, reporters, printers, pressmen, clerks, devils, etc., an opportunity to properly celebrate the day, no paper will be issued from the STANDARD office on the afternoon of the Fourth.

The Paris Gaulois of the 1st instant publishes the following codicil to the will of the late Prince Imperial: "The duty which our House owes to our own country will not lapse by my death. The arduous and glorious tasks of continuing the work of the First Napoleon will depend in the event of my death upon the oldest son of Prince Jerome, who, by the laws of succession of our House, is my heir. I trust that my beloved mother, by seconding him in the discharge of the responsibilities and duties, which in the event of my death will devolve upon him, will give to me when I am no longer upon this earth, this last and supreme proof of her affection for me and of her love of France."

Jennie June went to the races at Jerome Park. She found the Park delightful and adds to her description this gush: "This season a new millionaire element has been introduced, in the rich Californians and San Francisco mining speculators, who have found a new and important field of financial operations in New York City, and are popularly supposed to carry bonanzas with them, like nickels for car fare, in every vest pocket. They are nothing like the returned Californians we read about to look at. There are no big nuggets hanging to their watch chains; in fact, they show no watch chains to speak of. No Kohinoors blaze in their shirt fronts or on their fingers. They are, on the contrary, usually rather quiet and gentlemanly in their appearance, and have a frank off-hand manner which is very taking. The biggest operator of them all is Mr. James Keene, a young, slight man, with brown beard and eyes, whom I saw talking with the stylish wife of a stout California friend, who was only making a flying visit to the metropolis, and who is already on his way back. His deferential manner, his refined air and bow, would have done credit to Chesterfield, and were in striking contrast to the careless indifference which some men of fashion now affect in the presence of ladies, and seemed rather remarkable in the great rival of Mr. Jay Gould for the honors of Wall street. Mr. William Lent was also on the ground, an older man—perhaps fifty—of medium height and size, but bearing his years well, and having the reputation of a sincerity and generosity in his dealings which are not commonly associated with great financial speculators. It is he who stands as the representative of the most important of the new mining interests which have been brought from San Francisco to New York—the Standard, Bodie and others—and a few days ago was the recipient of a magnificent floral tribute, representing a stamping mill, with a base of white carnations and red and cream-colored roses. Long wreaths of smoke found graceful expression stems of delicate feathery branches from the fire-bush."

PACIFIC COAST.

The Democratic Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—On the reassembling of the Democratic Convention last evening, a resolution was offered that, with the exception of the Judiciary, no candidate of any other State convention should be indorsed. This created a long and heated discussion, during which the fact was developed that the delegates from San Francisco and Sacramento had been holding a conference with the managers of the Honorable Bilks, with a view to procuring the indorsement of the H. B. ticket, on which are many Republicans. It was strongly argued by friends of the fusion that on account of desertions from the Democratic ranks, the only possible chance for success lay in a coalition. The opponents denounced the proposed endorsement as an attempt to sell out the party to the H. B.'s.

Pending roll call a telegram from Glenn, accepting the nomination for Governor, was read:

On the call of the roll the resolution was adopted—yeas, 198; nays, 148. Cheers and confusion followed.

Sullivan, of San Francisco, objected to putting up the Democratic party to be sacrificed, and moved an adjournment sine die.

Amid a babel of cries another delegate charged Fowler of Tulare, a delegate on the floor, with saying he would vote and work for the Republican candidates, and accused him of selling out to the railroad. In an uproar redoubled, Fowler attempted to reach his accuser, but was seized by Gov. Irwin and others. For a few moments a general row was imminent. Order was finally restored.

A motion to adjourn was voted down and the Convention proceeded to nominate for Lieutenant Governor, Jas. D. Lynch of Los Angeles, Thomas Fowler of Tulare, and Levi Chaz of San Diego, were proposed. The latter was nominated on the first ballot. A motion to adjourn was lost.

For Secretary of State, A. J. Tinnin, of Trinity, was nominated by acclamation, Thos. Beck, the incumbent, declining the nomination.

Balance of the Ticket.

SACRAMENTO, July 3.—For Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. Goucher placed in nomination Henry C. Gesford, of Napa, where he is now holding the position of County Superintendent. He was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Cutter nominated D. B. Woolf for Clerk of the Supreme Court. He received the most hearty approval of the Convention and was declared the nominee of the party.

The ticket was completed by the nomination of G. T. Pauli, of Sonoma, for State Treasurer by acclamation.

Judge Cope of San Francisco made a speech on the importance of selecting capable candidates for the Judiciary, and concluded by nominating Judge R. F. Morrison, of San Francisco, for Chief Justice. C. T. Ryland and Judge Lake having indorsed Judge Morrison he was nominated by acclamation.

WASHINGTON.

War Between British and American Indians.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The Interior Department has information from the Gros Ventre Agency, Montana, under date of June 16th, that the British Indians in Targenbo have crossed the border; that they are destroying the buffalo upon which the Gros Ventres depend largely for their support, and that a skirmish has occurred between our own and the foreign Indians with a loss of life on both sides. The British Indians are well armed and are driving the Americans before them, the latter being in a panic and desiring to cross the Missouri river. Fifty lodges of British Indians and one hundred lodges of British half breeds are reported near the post.

Our Power Press.

A dispatch from San Francisco from Mr. T. S. Harris, proprietor of the STANDARD, says that our new power press was shipped from that city yesterday, and will arrive in Bodie early next week. This will enable us to enlarge the STANDARD, thereby giving our readers a larger supply of reading matter, and at the same time decreasing our expenses. The STANDARD is the pioneer newspaper of Bodie, and will always be found the first in every journalistic enterprise.

UNCLAIMED.—There is a message at the telegraph office for M. McMichels.

MONEY ORDERS.—On and after July 7th money can be sent from Bodie by post-office orders. This new change will be appreciated by the citizens of this section.

SPRINKLE THE STREETS.—We suggest to the gentlemanly street sprinkler that he should give Main street a good wetting down on the morning of the glorious Fourth.

PRIZES.—Ye who delight in tripping the light fantastic will bear in mind that prizes are to be awarded to the best dancers at McAlpin & Cran's Opera House on the night of the Fourth.

THEATRE TO-NIGHT.—Do not forget the grand complimentary benefit at the Bodie Opera House to-night. Secure your seats early, as there will be a great rush. The same company also play at Morman Ranch on the Fourth.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The ladies who are to give the picnic to-morrow, for the purpose of buying an organ for the Sunday school, expect every true-hearted American to come forward and spend four bits for lemonade and cakes.

CHANGE.—By reference to notice under "New To-day" it will be seen that Peter Gleason has purchased the entire stock of merchandise and rented the store formerly occupied by M. V. Gleason, at Bridgeport. Old and new customers will find every detail complete in this popular store.

THE BOOKER ASSESSMENT.—On the 30th of June the Directors of the Booker Consolidated Gold Mining Company of Bodie District levied an assessment (No. 3) of fifty cents per share, which will become delinquent in the Board July 31st, and in the office August 4th. The day of sale will be August 25th.

MORMAN RANCH.—To-morrow promises to be a gala day at the above named place. Messrs. Longfellow & Hunt have spared no pains in making the programme for their picnic the most attractive that has ever been made in this section. For a pleasant resort, its equal can not be found hereabouts, and Bodieites will avail themselves of this opportunity to pass the day under beautiful shade trees, where, with the large and attractive programme that is laid out, one could not do otherwise than pass a pleasant day. This is the only resort of the kind in this vicinity, and should be well patronized by our citizens. John A. McQuaid has been selected as reader, and A. H. Griswold as orator of the day. Let all who wish for a good time go to Morman Ranch.

JUDGE BRIGGS FOR COUNTY CLERK.—The friends of Hon. R. M. Briggs have pursuaded him to allow his name to be used before the Republican County Convention in connection with the office of County Clerk, and his formal announcement appears elsewhere in our columns. It is unnecessary for us to introduce Judge Briggs to the citizens of Mono county, for he is well known to the people, not only of our own vicinity but of the entire State, as an able jurist, a wise and conscientious judge, and a good citizen. In the many positions of public trust which he has held he has comported himself in such a way as to win unbounded confidence and respect, and it is greatly to his credit that in those positions he has never accumulated any property. Now that he is growing somewhat in years, his friends have though it becoming to urge upon the Judge the acceptance of a position carrying with it a respectable compensation, and accordingly his name will be presented to the Convention. Such a nomination would greatly strengthen the Republican ticket, and we trust that the Convention will give the subject careful consideration.

LAKE DISTRICT PROSPECTS.

Our Reporter on the Ground--A Visit to the True Blue--What the People Say of the Mammoth.

The location of the tunnel sites by the Mammoth and True Blue companies resulted in an examination by our reporter the other day of the east and west ledges, and the tracing of them from one end of Mineral Hill as far as any croppings showed encouragment. Miners familiar with the country will remember that the principal veins now being prospected and worked run northwest and southeast. These ledges are very prominent, and can be easily traced along Mineral Hill from the Mammoth mine at the southeast extremity. From the Mammoth mine our reporter took in the Head Light, Monte Christo, Tiger, Don Quixote, True Blue and Silveropolis respectively. These are on the west ledge. On the east ledge from the south is the Armstrong, Jordan, Alpha, North Star, Glimmer, Ajax (formerly the Herschel) and the Red Cloud. All of these mines are as yet really but prospects, and all of the same peculiar character. He who has examined the Mammoth rock will know it all. The so-called low grade, free milling ore lays piled up in such immense quantities that critics can scarcely be blamed for feeling a trifle nervous regarding the true worth of Mineral Hill. However, there is the ore, and hundreds of assays can be seen to attest its value; and should you still want further proof, it is a simple method to assay it yourself. The milling facilities have been written up too often to need repteition. In company with H. R. Miller, Secretary of the True Blue, and Superintendent Caldwell and Mr. Davis, of the same mine, a visit was paid to all the developments of said claim, which will undoubtedly figure as one of the biggest discoveries in the district when it shall have received proper attention. The first location of the True Blue is on the ridge, where a tunnel has been run thirty feet into a solid mass of ore, and still they had not reached the wall or cut the ledge. Right from the surface this ore—judging from the assays given below—should go $40 per ton, and at least 300,000 tons can be figured upon in opening this tunnel. About 1200 feet in a southerly course from this point the shaft is being sunk, and from the lode on the southwest of the ridge, directly down the steep mountain to its base, at least 1800 feet, is located the True Blue tunnel site; also, the mill site. This tunnel site is 2000 feet from the proposed Mammoth tunnel, which will cut in a westerly direction while the former will diverge to a southwesterly course. Both tunnels, it is expected, will tap the ledge or mineral belt in about 500 feet. It is well to note the fact that the ledge dips in the direction of the proposed tunnels. There never was a finer site for a mill, nor such facilities for a cheap method in shooting the ore down. It can be safely estimated that the lowest grade of ore, say ten dollars per ton, can be made to pay. It can be easily arranged to work this mine without interruption through the severe winter weather experienced at this high altitude. Following are five assays from this mine, showing a very fair average:

	GOLD.	SILVER.	TOTAL.
No. 1	$42 72	$5 02	$47 74
No. 2	203 58	5 02	208 60
No. 3	60 30	15 07	75 37
No. 4.	182 05	40 16	222 21
No. 5.	93 45	32 64	126 09

No. 1, surface; No. 2, face of cut; No. 3, average. Average, $136 00.

What the people say of the Mammoth mine and company amount to about the same conjectures raised on the outside. Questions are asked frequently: "Why does the company retain so much rich ore from the mill and ship so little bullion?" "Did they have a mill without a mine and then a mine without a mill?" "Do they hold back now expecting to gather in the stock they regret having disposed of?" All these and many more asked as often in Lake District as in Bodie or San Francisco, and it can certainly be no harm in giving room to these speculations so widely indulged in. It would seem, however, that the company mean business since the president has put in an appearance, and the machinery for twenty more stamps having arrived, and the suggestion of the president of immediately building the ore track on the ground so that it may be covered, also inclosing all the works for protection during the winter. This is a step in the right direction, and it is to be hoped that Superintendent Cross may not find too much to accomplish in rectifying the bad engineering on the first works and plans. All of the machinery spoken of, as well as other freight, is hauled by Nadeau's teams via Mojave. It is an outrageous road and a preposterously long one, considering the new route to Bodie. An accident occurred to one of the teams between Round Valley and Long Valley, in the way of an upset and the dumping out of an air compressor, etc. No damage was done and probably ere this everything is on the ground.

OUR OLD FRIEND.—We were overwhelmed with delight to meet our old friend, Grimes of Bitter Creek and White Pine, and in taken of his old time friendship he favored us withan order for 150 posters, for which we only charged him $40. When he gave us a little ad, making another $40, all of which was so appreciated by our friend, that we deliberately and conscientiously reduced the entire bill to $40, thereby donating $40. We trust that friend Grimes may live long and accumalate in Bodie, and that our friend may never lack the requisite when we may have occasion to strike him for two bits.

POSTPONED.—A dispatch from Judge Thereon Reed to Paul Bennett states that the Inyo County special term of the Sixteenth Judicial District Court is postponed to September 8 and that of Mono county to September 22.

NOONDAY.

The New Works at the Joint Shaft.

Outside of the regular reviews, the STANDARD promised to give the Noonday some special mention, and a reporter thereof took a look at the new works a day or two ago, and was shown through, including an inspection of the new shaft, by Supt. R. D. Bravin.

When Senator Stewart came up here in the spring and saw how well the original Noonday claim had developed since his previous visit, his confidence in the property was very considerably increased, and at once a new departure was decided upon. An extra horse was added to the whim and the work of ore extraction and reduction begun. The old works, aside from the whim, consisted of a 200-foot shaft on ths line of the ledge, which had to that depth but a nominal eastern pitch. From this point a drift was pushed north on the ledge, until it is now over 270 feet from the shaft, including stoping at different places. Crosscuts east and west were also run from points near the shaft, and additional developments were made. A winze from the drift a short distance north of the shaft has also been sunk to a depth of 116 feet. Here another level will be opened and operated from through the old shaft. The Miners' Mill has been kept running for some time, and will be until the new mill to be built by the joint forces of the Noonday and North Noonday companies is completed. The ledge as far as explored holds out quite regularly and satisfactorily, from three to five feet in width and of $20 to $35 ore. The ore carries gold chiefly, and has that general lively appearance characteristic of the big ledge now attracting so much attention in the Standard ground.

The two Noonday companies possess 3,000 feet in length of ground and 600 in width. It is located in the sag between Silver and Queen Bee Hills, running north and south, and with respect to east and west, it laps over either side of the dividing ridge. On the dividing line between the two claims, on the ridge, the site for the large new hoisting works was selected, the machinery for which was immediately forwarded and as rapidly put in place. The building is 60x100 in surface extent, exclusive of a carpenter and blacksmith shop now being added on the north side, each 20x30 feet in size. The engine is a powerful one of the "double" order and capable of sinking 2,000 feet. A W. F. Burleigh air-compressor is being put in place, and will be ready to drive the patent drills in a day or two more. The new shaft is a three-compartment, two of which are 4½x4½ feet, the south compartment for the pump being 5x4½ in size. All are well timbered with heavy square sets. A feature new to the district is the skeet run on guides, cage fashion, but is self-emptying. These skeets are common at Virginia, some of which bring up either water or waste, or both, to the amount of several tons at a load. This one will raise one and two-thirds tons. It is a vast improvement on the bucket principle. It has all the appliances of a safety cage beside the self-dumping feature. Mr. Bravin made some improvements in this Noonday dumping apparatus, of merit. It works like an oracle. The main shaft is down about 120 feet, and will be sunk at the rate of 100 feet per week. It will do almost everything, including crosscuts, etc., toward the exploration of all that portion of the mineral belt. The new mill will be erected on Cottonwood Creek, and is proposed to be of 30-stamp capacity.

BODIE AND LAKE STAGE LINE.—We do not hesitate in prononuncing the above stage line one of the best conducted in the country. Passing over it the other day we found the route a pleasant one for the mountains, and less of the disagreeable dust than we expected. Three changes of horses are made—the first at the "Frenchman's," then at King's Station and at Dead Man's creek. Starting from Mammoth City at 5 o'clock A. M. we arrived in Bodie at 4 P. M. sharp, which is certainly good time over a mountain road.

Save Your Gold!

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO MINERS AND QUARTZ MILL MEN!

Silver-Plated Amalgamating Plates

THE BEST PROCESS YET DISCOVERED FO SAVING FINE OR FLOAT GOLD.

Extensively used with great success in gravel and placer mining in various parts of the Pacific Coast. Over five hundred orders have been filled and the demand is constantly increasing. A large number of these Plates were sent to the Snake River mines, Idaho, last year, and a great many orders are being filled for them this season. Circulars containing full instructions for working these Plates sent with each order. Old Mining Plates bought or taken in exchange for new Silver-Plated Plates, and full value allowed. Gold extracted from old Plates at a moderate cost by a new and economical process. Old Plates (which often contain a surplus of gold above the cost of plating) can be re-plated.

With the most extensive facilities on the Pacific Coast, orders can be filled very promptly, and satisfaction guaranteed.

Mining men and the public generally are cautioned against unprincipled and irresponsible parties traveling through the country, endeavoring to secure orders for very inferior qualities of Silver-Plated Mining Plates.
